

Ignition interlocks

HOW DO THEY WORK?

A driver must blow into the device

The device checks the driver's breath for measurable alcohol

Sober drivers will be able to operate the vehicle normally.

If measurable alcohol is detected, the vehicle will not start